2259This list is an ongoing project to provide general past and present owner/location/history information on MG TCs and is intended as an informal resource only. Data comes from a variety of sources that may not always be accurate – it combines old membership lists, information from emails, eBay listings, Bring a Trailer, and other online resources. I do not have contact information, just what is shown on the list. If you have a vehicle listing to add or correct, please contact Bob Stein at posti@aol.com. I update/add to this list periodically as new information comes available. The most recent additions/updates are highlighted in YELLOW.

- 2946 entries (+23) (NOTE: Some vehicles have multiple entries, and some entries are just updated)

My father then completely stripped down the TC to the chassis and rebuilt it in Johannesburg. The TC was imported back to the UK in 1975. The TC was my mother and father's daily car when they first bought it back from South Africa in 1975 until I came along in 1979 and they had to purchase a four seater car which was a VW Beetle. And so the TC was only used on high days and spent most of the time in the garage. Between 1975 to 1990 engine was rebuilt and general repairs & services carried out. 1990 to present day the TC has been looked after by our local classic car garage.

8373	2013	UK	M & M Automotive	XPAG 9176	Red/ red	FFW 66 was purchased by the current custodian in July 1966. It had already been fitted with 16" Aston Martin road wheels and was later upgraded with Woodhead Monroe telescopic shock absorbers, which improved the ride and handling. In 1973, the decision was made to rebuild the MG; this consisted of a mechanical overhaul (including the engine), a full respray and a retrim. The TC has had very little use, covering just 17500 miles since the restoration was carried out. The motor car remains in good, usable condition, Full weather equipment is supplied.
